PROCEDURE

1. A special senior citizen registration period will be established between regular on-campus and late registration. Reduced tuition rates will only apply during and after this registration period. Refunds will not be issued for senior citizens who register during a pre-registration period, have paid regular rates, and then later request a Silver Edge rate card.
2. A reduced tuition rate schedule will be included on the list of charges as approved by the Board of Trustees.
3. Senior citizens must purchase their own textbooks.
4. No college/student fee shall be charged. All other fees are to be paid such as application, late registration, drop/add, student insurance and summer registration. All fines and penalty fees are to be paid such as library, parking and bad check.
