

OCEAN
COUNTY COLLEGE

CHILDREN'S READING INSTITUTE

Send Your Child to College This Summer!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- 1st graders entering 2nd grade
- 2nd graders entering 3rd grade

Success starts early! Get your child ready to go back to school! This two week intensive review program will enhance your child's reading ability and prepare him or her for success as an independent reader in the new school year.

The summer program is a hands-on approach which addresses the various learning styles. There are activities focusing on visual, auditory and kinesthetic modalities. There will be a review of vowel patterns (both short and long) and other phonemic skills while utilizing both dry-erase and magnetic boards for word work. Reading comprehension workbooks focus on various reading genres and comprehensions.

Classes meet for 10 hours
One hour per day for two weeks

• ENTERING THE 2ND GRADE (SRLE-200)

August 2-6 & August 9-13, 2010 • 9:00-10:00am

Your child will focus on becoming a fluent reader and building confidence. Skills learned and practiced during these sessions will be word attack, phonics, vocabulary, reading with expression, multi-syllable words, patterns, and comprehension.

• ENTERING THE 3RD GRADE (SRLE-201)

August 2-6 & August 9-13, 2010 • 10:30-11:30am

Children joining this workshop will reinforce second grade reading skills. Your child will learn how to become a fluent and independent reader. Skills learned and practiced will be word attack, phonics, vocabulary, reading with expression, multi-syllable words, patterns, and comprehension.

Cost of program: $229/2 week session
