

Center for Peace, Genocide, and Holocaust Studies

Ocean County College

Mission Statement

The Center for Peace, Genocide, and Holocaust Studies seeks to:

Encourage an understanding of peacemaking to eliminate hatred, racism, and prejudice in Ocean County

Foster an understanding of the history, literature, and social context and consequences of genocide and the Holocaust

Sponsor lectures, courses, and creative programs that engage the college and the community in nurturing a better understanding between people of different backgrounds.

Promote activities that foster peaceful coexistence, conflict resolution, and peer mediation

UN International Peace Day

Solar Lounge

9:30 – 2:00pm

Friday, September 21, 2007

JOIN US IN HUMANITY'S FIRST GLOBAL HOLIDAY

9:30 am – 10:30am

Peace Organizations Presentations: Peace Corp, Ishmael and Isaac, Women of Purpose

9:30 am – 2:00 pm

Informational Displays in the College Center Lobby about Organizations that relate to Peace

9:30am – 2:00 pm

Film series in Cafeteria

10:30 – 11:30

Claire Kanouse, Art Workshop for Sixth Graders

10:30 – 11:30

Martha Cybyk, Music Workshop for Sixth Graders

10:45 – 11:45am

Break out workshops with Panel Members
(open to the community and OCC Students, Faculty & Staff)

12 noon

Moment of Silence at the Flag Pole
Dance Club performance

12:15 – 1:00pm

Excerpts of literature relating to Peace (by community members and OCC Faculty)

For more details, contact Student Life at (732) 255-0348.