Be the change you want to see in the world.

—MAHATMA GANDHI

Peace is not merely a distant goal that we seek, but a means by which we arrive at that goal. —MARTIN LUTHER KING

Seek peace. When you have peace within, real peace with others will be possible. —THICH NHAT HANH

THE WORLD OF THE MAYA

September 18

Join the Global Education Task Force for Professor Christine Kitchin's presentation on the rise and fall of the Maya Civilization. It is our hope that this intellectual activity will entice you to take her breathtaking travel course to the Yucatan region of Mexico to study the Maya people, their archaeology and culture, and the area's tropical ecology.

2:15 pm to 3:15 pm, College Center Solar Lounge

RELIGIONS OF THE AMERICAS: THE MAYA

September 26

Prof. Kitchin will present an overview of Maya religion from ancient to modern times, explaining the significance of blood sacrifice and the religious-political complex that made the ancient Maya the most potent power in Central America for over 1000 years. She will also discuss modern Maya religious practices and the persistence of ancient Maya traditions that survive today in synthesis with modern Catholic beliefs and ceremonialism.

11:00 am to 12:15 pm, Technology Building Lecture Hall

Sponsored by Student Life and the Department of Humanities, Fine Arts, and Media Studies.
