FREE JOB SEEKERS SUPPORT CLUB & JOB SEARCH WORKSHOPS AT OCC

TOMS RIVER, NJ – If you are out of work or want to change jobs, Ocean County College's Career, Employment and Counseling Services is sponsoring a weekly Job Seekers Support Club. Meetings are free and open to the public. Registration is not required.

Job Seekers meetings will be held from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. on Monday mornings in Room 101D, Library (Building #3), OCC Main Campus, College Drive, Toms River. (There are no meetings on May 31 or September 6.)

OCC's Job Seekers Support Club will help you improve your job search strategies, allow you to network with other job seekers, and offer assistance with job seeking advice and job leads.

OCC's Career, Employment, and Counseling Services, which helps community members, students, and alumni achieve their career, academic, and life goals, will also host Free Job Search Workshops from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. on the following Wednesdays in 2010: September 8, October 13, November 10, and December 8.

Receive an overview of the latest NJ Career Assistance Navigator web site, provided by the New Jersey Department of Labor. NJCAN is a valuable tool to use to get an idea of your interests, identify skills you find satisfying, and learn what is important to you in a career. Specific emphasis will be given to the skills assessment tools area and how to use the resulting information to research career options and build a resume.

The workshops will be held in Room 114, Instructional Building (Building #6), OCC Main Campus, College Drive, Toms River.

This is a free service. However, registration is required, as enrollment is limited.

For more information, or to register for a Free Job Search Workshops, call the OCC Career Center at 732.255.0400, ext. 2945, or visit www.ocean.edu/career.htm.
