

POLICY

An Individual who retires from Ocean County College may be re-employed by the College in a part-time or adjunct capacity following a six-month period of separation from the official date of his/her retirement. A six-month separation period is required to establish a bona fide retirement, and arrangements to return to employment cannot be made prior to separation. The re-employment process will follow the Board-approved hiring policies and procedures.

Adopted: August 25, 2014