

POLICY:

Ocean County College is committed to enhancing the safety awareness of members of the College community. The College will publish in its annual security report a statement indicating the location from which members of the College community may access information about certain sex offenders.

This statement in the annual security report will consist of the following language:

New Jersey law authorizes the Division of State Police to make available to the public over the internet information about certain sex offenders who are required to register under Megan's Law. The sex offender internet registry law may be found in New Jersey Statutes, Title 2C, New Jersey Code of Criminal Justice, 2C:7-12 to 19. The sex offender website may be accessed at <http://www.njsp.org/sex-offender-registry/index.shtml>.
