

SPORTS MANAGEMENT – Certificate of Proficiency

Effective Catalog Year 2017-2018

The Sports Management certificate program is designed to provide students with the comprehensive skills needed for entry level employment. Employment settings may include sport camps, golf courses, YMCA, and minor league sports stadiums. Students may apply credits earned in the certificate program toward an associate degree.

___ENGL 151	English I	3cr.
___MATH 156	Introduction to Statistics	3cr.
___HEHP 110	Applied Modern Health	2-3 cr.
Or
___HEHP 225	Contemporary Health
___BUSN 131	Introduction to Business Administration	3cr.
___BUSN 134	Principals of Marketing	3cr.
___CSIT 123	Integrated Office Software	3cr.
___PSYC 172	General Psychology	3cr.
___HEHP 239	Strength and Condition Physiology	3cr.
___HEHP 238	Management and Rehabilitation of Athletic Injuries	3cr.
___HEHP 267	Sports Management	3cr.
___HEHP 290	Internship I	3cr.

Total Credits 32-33

[When notifying the Commission on Higher Education about this new certificate program, the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for the program is 51.9999.]

Board of Trustees Approval Date: March 23, 2009