OCC Jazz Band was on fire. This is Memphis Underground, a simple jam tune. Yet, we turned it into a feature song, eventually having everyone join in for a complete improvisation. All of the solos from last night were exceptionally more incredible than ever. It was such a beautiful experience, being able to connect with people at this level. Extraordinary, really. I love all of you. 100%.

Come see us at One Flight Up April 19th. I'll post a flyer in a few.
