

POLICY

The name of the college shall be used only for official operations and activities as approved by the Board of Trustees. The name cannot be used for commercial purposes or for personal gain.

For special situations, the President may approve the use of the college name for activities that are clearly beneficial to the college.