The following was amended:

- Additional monies to NJ Education, Climate Awareness, Training and Engagement (EduCATE) grant award from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, as part of a Regional Collaboration, the Barnegat Bay Partnership (BBP), and the Novins Planetarium (NP), both housed at Ocean County College (OCC), will develop, deliver, and disseminate full-dome planetarium and other guided educational programs on community resiliency and related environmental topics, in part with other RDI NJ partners. Multimedia/videographic contractors will assist OCC personnel in creating content for various audiences including K-12, college students, and the public via full-dome content, short videos, and live lectures. Programming will be featured at OCC NP, which presented engaging educational programs to over 38,000 attendees, including 12,000 K-12 students in 2023. OCC NP also collaborates and shares best practices with a consortium of NJ Planetariums (including Rowan University, Raritan Valley Community College) and reaches out through other public venues (i.e., Jersey City Public Library, Jersey Shore Girl Scout Council) to achieve programming outcomes. Programming will also be delivered via a portable dome to reach K-12 and adult audiences in coastal communities through various organizations (e.g., schools, churches, civic organizations, and public libraries). Educational material will also be disseminated via a NOAA Science on a Sphere Explorer Exhibit to make environmental programming more available to all audiences. Program Director:
Ms. Nina Sassano, Associate Director of Outreach, Barnegat Bay Partnership. Program Period: May 2026 through September 2028.
